

McGuireWoods' Pittsburgh Office Co-Hosts Stonewall Anniversary Panel Discussion

July 17, 2019

McGuireWoods counsel Emily Wagner, chair of the Allegheny County Bar Association's LGBT Rights Committee, moderated a June 28 panel discussion at McGuireWoods' Pittsburgh office to commemorate the 50th anniversary of the Stonewall riots.

During the event, panelists detailed the history and impact of the uprisings, which served as a watershed moment in the gay rights movement in the United States and around the world. The panel also discussed the history of the LGBT community in Pittsburgh, and detailed the continuing social and legal challenges facing the community.

The Allegheny County Bar Association's LGBT Rights Committee and McGuireWoods co-hosted the event.

The McGuireWoods website provides information of general interest to the public. The website does not offer legal advice about specific situations or problems. You should consult a McGuireWoods lawyer if you have legal issues requiring attention. Nothing on this site creates an express or implied contract. McGuireWoods does not intend to create an attorney-client relationship by inviting you to contact us. Unless and until we and you agree that we will represent you, we will not have any duties to you, including any duty to keep what you send us confidential or any duty to protect your interests. This means that nothing you send us will be kept confidential, unless we mutually agree that we will keep it confidential. Past legal successes described on this website are not indicators of future results. The outcome of particular legal matters is dependent upon the facts and law applicable to the matters.